FALL SERIES

PARENTS & GUARDIANS

HOW TO ADVOCATE FOR YOUR CHILD'S NEEDS

This free online series is for parents and guardians who have a student with a disability or diverse needs attending private school. The series will provide a space to get take-away strategies and answers to frequently asked questions on how to work within the framework of private schools to effectively advocate for their child's needs. Each session will be held on Zoom. A link will be provided after registration is complete.
